

Something for the Weekend

BY TOM CHURCHILL

Marvellous Mehdi scene

PARIS DJ ROCKS DEATH DISCO

1 DEATH DISCO @ The Arches, Glasgow, tomorrow: The mighty DJ Medhi, pictured, returns to Glasgow with his hip hop-meets-house sound. One of the key players in Paris's ultra-hip Ed Banger family, he's also half of Carte Blanche with pal Riton. Azari & III, Totally Enormous Extinct Dinosaurs and Mighty Mouse also join the resident DJ squad.

2 NOMAD @ Queen's Park Glasshouse, Glasgow, Sunday: This is something a little bit special – a daytime bash in a venue with a difference, featuring the Scots debut of one of the hottest DJs on the house scene. Romanian star Rhadoo is resident at Ibiza's notorious Circo Loco and he'll be playing for three hours. Don't miss.

3 MUSIKA @ Liquid Room, Edinburgh, tomorrow: The capital's biggest techno and progressive house crew are throwing a free party with the full resident DJ team in effect. Derek Martin, Kev Wright, Blair and Ryan Harrower, Laurie Neil and Laurence Nolan provide the soundtrack, and it's the last Musika before their August event with the legendary Sasha.

4 KILLER KITSCH @ Sub Club, Glasgow, tonight: Cracking Belgian techno from Paul Chambers, who's the tour support DJ for the mighty 2manydjs/Soulwax and released tracks on Erol Alkan's Phantasy Sound label. Expect a full live set of synth-heavy action.

5 WONKY @ Teviot Underground, Edinburgh, tonight: A night of floor-quaking bass, beats and bleeps from Hobbes and Wolfjazz, who are spinning back to back as part of the Film Festival's night-time celebrations.

● Email your news and listings to tom.churchill@the-sun.co.uk

BY JIM GELLATLY

THE IMAGINEERS

WHO: Stevie Young (vocals/guitar), Scott Bonnyman (guitar/vocals), Ali Greig (bass/vocals), Stephen Forbes (drums).

WHERE: Glasgow

FOR FANS OF: The Coral, Vampire Weekend, The View

JIM SAYS: The Imagineers' folk-tinged indie pop has made them one of Scotland's biggest buzz bands, with music industry insiders taking serious note.

Each track on their new EP See As I Say stands up in its own right. The brilliant Imagineer might be considered the lead track, but there are certainly no fillers.

Delightful harmonies and infectious melodies give them an edge over other bands on the scene and guest violinists Miranda and Elspeth help create a wonderful live effect.

They are one of the acts chosen to perform at Holyrood on July 1 for the opening of the Fourth Session of the Scottish Parliament.

Before then, they host their own free night, The Imagineers Circus, at Stereo in Glasgow next Friday. Forthcoming dates also include a Highlands & Islands tour at the end of July taking in Inverness, Stornoway and Thurso.

MORE: facebook.com/theimagineers

● Jim presents In: Demand Uncut, Sunday 7-10pm on Clyde 1, Forth One, Northsound 1, Radio Borders, Tay FM, West FM & West Sound FM — jimgellatly.com

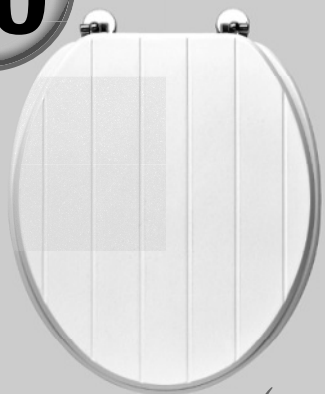

CLUBBING

NEW MUSIC

10 DAY DEALS

ENDS
MONDAY
27TH JUNE

NOW
£10

SAVE £9.99

Tongue and Groove Toilet Seat
£19.99, £10

RESERVE & COLLECT

NOW
£35

SAVE £39.99

Mayer Floor Lamp Black & Chrome
£74.99, £35

RESERVE & COLLECT

NOW
£87

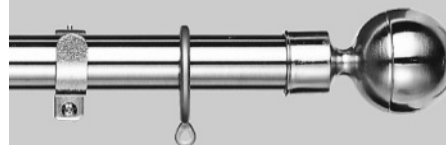

SAVE £22.99

Henry Red Vacuum Cleaner (Hetty also available)
£109.99, £87

RESERVE & COLLECT

NOW
£10

SAVE £16.99

Brushed Chrome Extendable Ball Curtain Pole 1.2-2.1m
£26.99, £13.49, £10

RESERVE & COLLECT

MORE DEALS IN STORE & ONLINE

Collect points
Get rewards

HOME BASE

Make a house a home

Look online at homebase.co.uk for all our great offers